Letter to the editor: Republican big spenders reveal twisted logic on deficit

April 11, 2007

I'm not a fan of the expanded Alternative Minimum Tax law, but somehow we must pay off the huge deficit Rep. Dave Weldon helped create.

Weldon has forgotten that during the past six years the Republican-controlled Congress spent taxpayers' money faster than it was spent at any other time in the past 70 years; maybe in this country's history.

Apparently he doesn't care that the national debt increased 56 percent in just six years. His remarks about Democrats having twisted logic are bogus; there is nothing more twisted than the so-called conservative members of Congress who consistently approved spending bills in excess of all federal revenues.

There has never been a more irresponsible Congress and Weldon was part of it.
